

About the Author

Free Music with this book
Please scan QR code

Avron Levine White took his M.A.; and Ph.D. in Film, Music and Sociology at Keele University, Staffordshire, United Kingdom. After his appointment as a Film Officer for the Plymouth City Arts Council he launched his first publication: Lost in Music: Culture Style and the Musical Event. (Published by Routledge and Kegan Paul United Kingdom). Among his other talents, Avron is an accomplished Jazz musician, having played professionally in the United Kingdom and Switzerland. His career path has led him to many projects of music and Latin American Dance, most notable of which is his passion for Argentine Tango. He currently teaches Tango in Florida and continues to live Internationally in the United Kingdom, the United States, and Peru.